Licensing and Regulatory Information

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this qualification at the time of publication.

Work placement Requirements

There are workplace assessment requirements of course assessment including workplace holistic training (WBT) which will require the learner to complete at least 48 service periods. A “service period” in a hospitality environment such as a restaurant may be a breakfast service, lunch service or dinner service. A “shift” worked in a restaurant may incorporate one or more of these service periods.

Legitimate work-based learning programs and placements give learners an opportunity to gain experience in the workplace. Under the Fair Work Act 2009, a vocational placement is a working arrangement where all of the following apply:

- the worker is not paid a wage
- it is a requirement of an Australian-based education or training course
- it is authorised under a law or administrative arrangement of the Commonwealth, or a State or Territory.

A learner in an arrangement that meets all of the above criteria is not covered by the Fair Work Act; and is not entitled to the minimum wages and other entitlements provided in the National Employment Standards and any applicable modern awards or agreement.
